

PRESS RELEASE

DODONI 100% Greek products at Anuga 2019

With presence in 52 countries, aiming to further increase exports

Once again, DODONI, the top dairy company of Epirus, will be taking part in Anuga 2019, the international food and beverage trade fair taking place October 5-9th in Cologne, Germany.

With more than 100 unique products, this year DODONI plans to introduce international visitors to the authentic flavour and exceptional quality that make its products special, as they are produced from pure ingredients and 100% Greek milk.

The company representatives will meet with distributors and major retailers from all over the world at the trade fair with the aim of bolstering exports to new markets and countries, while highlighting products with high nutritional value that are directly linked to Greek cuisine, such as the popular DODONI PDO Feta, top-quality DODONI yoghurt, authentic haloumi cheese and traditional kefalograviera yellow cheese.

More than 35 categories of DODONI products get transported to 52 countries daily and are sold at some of the largest supermarket chains abroad.

Mr Vasilis Vrochidis, Exports Director at DODONI, said: “We are a company that produces exceptional quality products from pure ingredients. As proud ambassadors of Greek flavour and nutrition, our presence at Anuga 2019 this year will provide an opportunity for even more international customers and visitors to sample the authentic flavour of the DODONI products and understand why we feel proud for producing them, along with thousands of Greek and foreign consumers who honour them daily by serving them at their table. With our products already present in more than 50 countries all over the world, our goal over the next few years is to significantly increase our exports so that even more consumers globally can learn about the value and quality that the DODONI name represents.”
