

PRESS RELEASE

A Greek art summer in Cyprus sponsored by DODONI

This summer, the Greek dairy company is a proud sponsor of the concerts given by Antonis Remos and many other artists

DODONI dairy industry is one of the leading dairy companies in Greece and the local market leader in P.D.O. Feta sales and, since June 2016, is also operating a Halloumi plant in Limassol. This summer, it will accompany major Greek artists in a series of shows and concerts to be given in Cyprus, starting with the series of concerts by Antonis Remos and friends, concluded yesterday in the School for the Blind.

During the concerts, DODONI had a dynamic presence and also supported the joint public awareness initiative of the Ministry of Education and Culture and the Hellenic Bank against school bullying.

With the slogan “SMILE”, the campaign’s “ambassador” Antonis Remos welcomed from 13 to 15 June at the School for the Blind established artists such as Natassa Theodoridou, Despina Vandi and the pop-rock band Melisses.

At the concerts’ opening night, DODONI distributed gifts and the DODONI authentic Greek strained yoghurt, with a light flavour and high nutritional value, offering a unique tasting experience to all the people present.

Mr Panicos Hadjicostas, Managing Director of DODONI Cyprus, made the following statement: “We are pleased to support the shows given by established Greek artists in Cyprus, as they fully express our views about social contribution and quality entertainment. DODONI’s excellent performance in Cyprus compels us to carry on with our social actions, by creating or supporting initiatives that impact positively on society.”

DODONI S.A. was established in 1963 and since then, its products are sold at more than 10,000 sales points in the Greek market and exported to more than 44 countries around the world. The Company’s excellent performance led it to the launch the operation of a plant in Limassol, in June 2016. This state-of-the-art facility is home to the production of authentic Cypriot cheeses, such as halloumi and anari, which stand out for their authentic taste and excellent quality, which is due to the 100% Cypriot cow’s, sheep’s and goat’s milk that the Company is sourcing daily from local producers.
