Musical cultural events with the Taste of Good, the Taste of DODONI

DODONI strained yoghurt, supporting once again the charitable work of the Sophia Foundation For Children, sponsored great concerts and cultural events in Cyprus.

In this context, Despina Vandi and Elena Paparizou met on stage, entertaining their fans at the concerts that took place in Nicosia and Limassol on 26 and 27 September, respectively. The audience welcomed with frantic applause the two popular singers at the concerts organized by the Foundation for a good cause, while this initiative follows on from the activities that DODONI strained yoghurt had supported in the summer, celebrating its arrival with a series of events to raise public awareness of school bullying, reinforcing in this way the relevant initiative of the Ministry of Education and Culture.

Additionally, by being dynamically present and making a significant contribution to a series of concerts with renowned artists such as Antonis Remos, Natassa Theodoridou, Despina Vandi and the Melisses pop-rock band, given at the School for the Blind from 13 to 15 June, DODONI strained yoghurt made its mark in the summer of Cyprus and came back determined to give a distinct taste to the local cultural events, with the spectacular musical show “Marinella-Zaharatos”, presented in Nicosia (Archbishop Makarios Amphitheatre, “School for the Blind”, 24 and 25 July), Larnaca (Pattihio Municipal Theatre, 26 July), and Limassol (Municipal Garden Theatre, 28 July).

With the two concerts, DODONI strained yoghurt continues to enhance public entertainment and enrich the cultural agenda of Cyprus, keeping the aims it set in the early summer and giving to cultural events the Taste of Good, the Taste of DODONI.
