PRESS RELEASE

DODONI Cyprus celebrates one year of successful operation

DODONI dairy industry celebrates one year of operation in Cyprus, having already established itself dynamically in the local market with its ultramodern cheese production unit.

One of leading dairy companies in Greece, DODONI dairy industry last year took the strategic decision to expand to Cyprus, investing significant funds in the creation of an ultramodern unit producing Halloumi and Anari cheeses in Limassol.

The company's new factory in Cyprus produces a total of 9 product SKUs of authentic Cypriot cheeses, sold in the local market and exported to Central European countries and to Australia, the USA, Scandinavia and the Middle East. In its first year of operation, the Cyprus factory processed more than 12,000 tonnes of fresh Cypriot milk and, once its full capacity is reached, is expected to provide 100 jobs.

DODONI Cyprus offers to consumers products of a high standard made using pure raw material, with respect to the traditional local manufacturing methods, using 100% Cypriot cow's, sheep's and goat's milk, thus supporting in a tangible way the local community and its suppliers.

The CEO of DODONI Cyprus Mr. Panikos Hadjikosta made the following statement: "Today is an important day for all of us in the DODONI family, as we complete one year of dynamic presence in the Cypriot market, where the acceptance of consumers encourages us to take the next steps. Having as our key concern to register Cypriot halloumi as a PDO product, as well as to strengthen the local economy, we continue to offer to consumers products of a high quality."

DODONI dairy industry is one of the leading dairy companies in Greece and the market leader in the production and sales of PDO Feta cheese. The company started out on its dynamic growth in 1936 at Ioannina as a small dairy unit and, to this day, remains true to its values and to its vision of producing and offering pure products of excellent quality.
