PRESS RELEASE

Recognition for DODONI Feta and DODONI Halloumi at the Great Taste Awards 2018

DODONI feta, the best-selling PDO feta in Greece, and authentic DODONI halloumi, received significant recognition for their exceptional flavour at this year's Great Taste Awards, one of the most important institutions that evaluates and recognizes the best food and drink worldwide.

Constantly focussing on making products that stand out for their taste, DODONI took part for the first time in the Great Taste Awards where it received very positive comments and was granted one star for its renowned feta and halloumi.

Made from 100% Greek, sheep's and goat's milk, DODONI feta is a purely Greek, award-winning Protected Designation of Origin (PDO) product, available in over 45 countries worldwide. DODONI halloumi is produced exclusively from Cypriot milk in DODONI's state-of-the-art factory at Limassol. It stands out for its special aroma, unique taste and authentic production method, having won the trust of consumers in over 30 countries worldwide.

In the last three years, DODONI has received over 15 awards and distinctions from Greek and international institutions, which evaluate and recognise both superior quality and exceptional taste.

Mr. Vasilis Vrohides, exports director at DODONI, stated that, "We are highly honoured and delighted that our products have stood out and been recognized amongst thousands of others, at such an internationally-renowned and recognized event as the Great Taste Awards. Our aim, as members of the DODONI family, is to produce pure, 100% Greek products of high nutritional value and quality, offering the Tradition in Taste to both Greek and international consumers. These new distinctions are, for all of us at DODONI, a significant recognition of our efforts and they inspire us to continue to offer products of exceptional taste that have deservedly gained the trust and love of the consumers".

The Great Taste Awards are an internationally-renowned tasting competition, organized every year by the British "Guild of Fine Food". The event is the acknowledged benchmark of food of exceptional taste and quality. During this year's competition, over 500 specialized judges evaluated, through the process of blind tasting, 12,500 products from all over the world, to showcase and award the best of them.
