

PRESS RELEASE

A Huge Success of DODONI's Holiday Breakfast with Christos Barkas

At the main Melanidis pedestrian walkway in Ioannina

DODONI, the leading dairy industry in Greece, and chef Christos Barkas wanted to say farewell to 2019 by offering the most delicious and festive breakfast in the city of Ioannina.

Locals and visitors at the Melanidis pedestrian walkway on the 30th of December from 12:00 to 14:00 had the opportunity to visit the DODONI stand and sample the special delicacies with the taste of good prepared by popular chef Christos Barkas, in cooperation with the DELTA Vocational Training Institute.

At DODONI's festive breakfast, visitors tasted traditional kasopita (batter pie) with tomato chutney and creamed cheese with DODONI products, delicious fritters with award-winning DODONI PDO Feta and hot chocolate made with 100% Greek DODONI milk.

True to its commitment to make pure and exclusively Greek dairy products, DODONI and Christos have embarked on a special project with Ioannina character to present traditional recipes in original ways that combine cooking with creativity.

You can see more on the YouTube "Tradition...with a twist" series of videos on the DODONI channel.