

PRESS RELEASE

DODONI Epirotiko Strained now in a new triple pack

Made with fresh milk DODONI collects from the 60 best farms in Epirus

DODONI, the leading dairy industry in Epirus, has introduced a new triple pack of its Epirotiko Strained yoghurt in response to modern-day dietary preferences.

Inspired by the traditional recipe from Epirus, DODONI Epirotiko Strained yoghurt is made with 100% Greek fresh milk the company collects every day from the 60 best farms in Epirus to ensure a product of high nutritional value and rich flavour.

With 57 years of experience in producing pure dairy products with a unique flavour - the Taste of Good - DODONI consistently invests in enhancing its range of products with new, authentic offerings of excellent quality that are completely in line with current-day nutritional trends.

DODONI Epirotiko Strained yoghurt is the perfect choice for any time of day and is now available in the refrigerator section of supermarkets throughout Greece in a pack of 3 cups, having earned top place in preference amongst Greek consumers.

With 9 categories of dairy products and more than 100 different item codes, the DODONI dairy industry supports the largest milkshed in Greece with more than 5,500 small and large producers, delivering the tradition of Epirus to the table of thousands of consumers who choose it and trust it daily.