PRESS RELEASE

Three more international awards for DODONI

DODONI's beloved products were awarded at World Cheese Awards

In the framework of this year's World Cheese Awards, DODONI Dairy added three more significant international awards to its portfolio.

Kefalotyri DODONI, received the highest honour, obtaining the gold award and impressing the judges with its distinct flavour. All the while, Galotyri DODONI received the silver award, and DODONI TouTost received the bronze award, both for their taste innovation and high quality.

DODONI is one of Greece's leading cheese producers, with a successful presence in Greece and internationally for over a half-century. With more than ten product categories on the market, it demonstrates once again that the Taste of Good's quality and authenticity are internationally recognized, gaining a worthy position in the world's largest markets, as well as international recognition, and its own unique position at the table and in the hearts of Greeks and foreign consumers.

The international competition World Cheese Awards 2021 took place in Spain under the auspices of Guild of Fine Food.

DODONI's Marketing Manager, Vicky Papoutsaki, stated: "Those three new international awards are another validation of our efforts, and we are overjoyed that our goods were acknowledged alongside products from so many countries at these major international competitions. At the same time, awards of this kind are a huge motivator for us to continue with even more zeal and enthusiasm to deliver pure and authentic DODONI dairy products both in Greece and abroad."
