

23 February 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Recognition for DODONI at the Food Experts' Awards 2023

DODONI has won seven new awards at the international FEA (Food Experts' Awards) 2023.

Based on its dedication, perseverance and excellence in areas such as innovation, quality, food safety, product development and management, which have led to its outstanding success in achieving the highest future-oriented business and technological goals and objectives in food science, DODONI earned one Gold Award in each of the following categories:

- Food Safety Culture Stand Out - for the organisation's food safety culture and mindset
- Food Innovation Stand Out - for its crispy feta snacks, baked with 100% PDO DODONI Feta
- Top Less, Low or High Product - for the production of DODONI Feta 40% Less Salt and DODONI Feta Light
- DODONI Great VEGAN's choice - for the DODONI Plant'd plant-based desserts range
- Top 'Free of' or 'with No' Product - for DODONI strained yoghurt 2%, lactose free
- Food Brand Marketing Stand Out - for the 360° DODONI with Fruit campaign

The company also received a Silver Award in the Food Product Integrity Stand Out category, in recognition of DODONI's philosophy, vision, ethics and organisation.

The Food Experts' Awards are a series of international awards, organised in Greece this year for the first time by cibum, the website for quality, safety and the 'soul' of food, with the object of celebrating companies and organisations for their achievements in the field of food science.

Michalis Panagiotakis, CEO of DODONI, had this to say: 'The seven awards we received from the team of expert tasters are a reward for the high targets we have set for our management systems. At DODONI, for 60 years now, we have implemented a series of policies and procedures which are designed to ensure that the products reaching our customers' hands are manufactured in such a way that they are of high quality and safe for consumers anywhere in the world. Our goal remains to be ambassadors of authentic Greek flavours, bringing to every home and every table the 'Taste of Good', representing values which incorporate tradition, authenticity, distinctiveness, our passion for the products and our sense of responsibility.'