

DODONI introduces the new Baked Cheese Thins

The day when feta becomes the crunchiest snack has arrived! Baked with Feta DPO the new DODONI snacks are a fact!

DODONI once again innovates and presents to the consumer audience the new Baked Cheese Thins that are already on the market.

With the release of the new snacks, the company makes a dynamic entry into the category of salty snacks by introducing Baked Cheese Thins, a snack of high nutritional value which contains 60-70% of the beloved and authentic DODONI feta cheese.

The new snacks are an explosion of sublime combinations of flavors and aromas, they are sure to be the unique tasty companion for all hours of the day, the favorite habit in all aspects of everyday life, delicious, exciting, so delightful that they will become an inseparable companion, ideal for school, company, the office, the office break, the neighborhood, our guests, for the party, for the car, for the walk, for young and old alike.

Centered around the company's philosophy of quality and pure products, the new Baked Cheese Thins combine the company's history with modern snack making techniques. Specifically, they are produced with only natural ingredients, are ideal for vegetarians, and are gluten & nut free. At the same time, they are a natural source of protein (9 grams per piece) which comes from the high feta content.

DODONI is evolving, expanding with the aim of becoming a large food industry, already long ago the plant-based products have been released and have been well received by the consumers.

Healthy, crunchy, and satisfying, Baked Cheese Thins are delicious and available in 3 unique flavours:

Tomato & Oregano - A twist on a classic Greek flavor combination with the addition of tomato and oregano for an intense Mediterranean flavor.

Jalapeno Chilli- A slightly spicy but balanced option that stands out and gives a strong flavour experience.

Caramelised Onion- A gourmet combination, caramelized onions, balanced by sweet notes.

As noted by Mr. Michael Panagiotakis, CEO of the Company: "this is a unique product in the market, using modern production and operating methods, we are consistently investing in providing high quality products, using the best raw materials. Emphasizing on the needs of the modern consumer, at DODONI our philosophy focuses on our R&D department and how to develop an innovative product. Baked Cheese Thins, baked with DODONI's beloved Feta P.O.P., are a new, healthy proposition for all members of the family, thus enriching our wide portfolio of products in the market, offering even more choices to Greek and international consumers."

With over 12 product categories and more than 100 distinct codes, DODONI continues to respond to modern consumer trends and invest in strengthening its product range.
