PRESS RELEASE

Michail Panagiotakis is appointed Deputy CEO

DODONI S.A. announces that Mr. Michail Panagiotakis is the new deputy CEO, as of July 3rd 2014.

Till recently, Michail Panagiotakis was acting as General Manager for Finance and Administrative Services at Urban Rail Transports S.A., contributing significantly to the company's financial consolidation, and its income and profit increase.

During his career he took on the management of important companies in the sector and had a positive impact at an organizational level and at the level of rational operation and development, during their whole life-cycle. Before Urban Rail Transports S.A, Mr. Panagiotakis acted as General Manager at EOMMEX (2009-2012) and Tram S.A. (2007-2009).

He also has a significant experience in the food sector, since in 2000 he took on the post of General Manager at Blauel Organic Products, leading the company's significant export activities in the sector of olive oil and olives.

Mr. Panagiotakis studied in Greece and abroad, holds a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA) from Hull University, United Kingdom.

DODONI is very pleased to welcome Mr. Panagiotakis and wishes him all the success and strength for his new post.

Sincerely,
Ioannis A. Keisoglou
